

Saint Paul's Catholic High School

15th December 2017

Careers Service Invite

Dear Parent/Carer

Saint Paul's Catholic High Schools Careers Service invites all Year 11 students interested in Apprenticeships to attend an Information, Advice and Guidance Evening with their parent/carer on Thursday, 18th January 2018 from 16:00 to 17:30.

Ms Sue Walton, school Careers Advisor will give a talk on applying for apprenticeships in 2018 and explain how Saint Paul's supports the process, what students should do independently and tips on how adults can develop job opportunities for their child outside of school.

On the evening information handouts will be given providing information on job hunting and a small cross section of training providers are attending so students can meet their recruitment staff, present cv's and ask questions about getting work in specific trades. The training providers attending are as follows;

The Army

Damar (TBC)

Q.A (IT specialists)

The Skills Company

Trafford First (part of Trafford College)

If you or your child would like to attend the evening, please complete the slip below or email s.walton@st-paulshigh.net. Further information will be emailed in the New Year.

Yours sincerely

Mr C Fannon
Progress Leader, Year 11
