Father Owen Writes:

Hello and welcome to this week's newsletter. On this great Solemnity of Corpus Christi, we are reminded to go out and to make ourselves a holocaust just as Christ made Himself a holocaust. We are to sacrifice everything not for the mediocre glory and false praise of man but for the eternal joy of knowing that we have played a full roll; the fullest possible in helping others get to heaven. We have fully embarked on the mission of God that all play a part in salvation history. We are here to be the saints of the present age and by attending Mass appropriately; by allowing silence and not chatter before Mass to prepare fully; we can then take our part in the greatest banquet known to man – The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and so help others as well as ourselves to come to know Jesus in a deeper and more prayerful way! A way which allows us to become more fully aligned with Him whom we receive in Communion! And then we can truly acclaim with full voice that wonderful song of joy:

'O Sacrament most Holy, O Sacrament Divine; all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine!'

1st Reading	This is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you.	Exodus 23:3-8
Psalm	How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?	Psalm 115
2nd Reading	The blood of Christ can purify our inner self.	Hebrews 9:11-15
Gospel	This is my body; this is my blood.	Mark 14:12-16,22-26
